R.R. MEN PLAN NEW ALLIANCE AS WAR STEP

N. Y. Workers Urge Unions To Form District Councils

175,000 REPRESENTED

Transportation Brotherhoods Urged to Affiliate With the A. F. of L.—250 Unions Represented

New York, April 4.—Representatives of 175,000 organized railroad employes in special convention here yesterday called upon the executive heads of the recognized national and international railroad unions to sanction the formation of district "offensive and defensive" alliances—railroad district councils—in the New York district and at other "strategic points in the railroading industry."

These district organizations are necessary, it was stated in a letter sent to the executive union officials, to enable the railroad employes "to better resist the concentrated attacks of the Railway Executive Association" and "to bring about a closer affiliation of all railroad employes and perfect a 100 per cent. organization in all crafts by stimulating interest in their own welfare and educating them in the value of solidarity."

Delegates to the convention, who represented all local railroad unions in the Greater New York district, urged that "a state of status quo should be declared by the American Federation of Labor so as to clear the way and make it possible for what are now commonly known as the transportation brotherhoods to affiliate with the American Federation of Labor."

Through this action, it was stated, the "preambles and resolutions that gave birth to industrial autonomy by the formation of the general departments within the federation would be preserved."

More than 250 representatives of local unions in the New York district attended the convention, which was called by district officers of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employes.

The delegates affirmed their confidence in their international and national officials and pledged them "our all in their untiring efforts to secure and maintain for the railroad employes the working conditions and the standard of living that they are so justly entitled to."

"We further believe that it would be to the best interest of all concerned," added the communication, "that the present existing pact between the 16 recognized railroad unions be reaffirmed and continued indefinitely, and that the principle of craft amalgamation and industrial autonomy be not only recognized as a principle but to be heralded by the railroad workers as an accomplished fact."

It would be to the best interest of the organized railroad employes in the different railroad centers," it was stated, "that they be permitted to form friendly railroad district councils in order to bring about a better local understanding and so that they may be better able to carry out the mandates of the several national and international unions in line with the offensive and defensive program as at present in effect. And that said railroad district councils be allowed to function and be officially recognized by the executive council of the American Federation of Labor; and the executive council of the railway employes' department of the American Federation of Labor to issue what may be known as 'emergency charters' for the present, or until a final disposition is made of the policy manifested here in the district of New York and other strategic points in the railroading industry throughout the United States where this matter has been given serious consideration."

Formation of the district councils was declared to be "imperative at this mmoent of concentrated opposition on the part of those who would divide the railroad employes in order to destroy their economic organization."

Chicago, April 4.—B. M. Jewell, president of the railway empolyes' department of the American Federation of Labor, left for Washington yesterday to attend a conference called by President Harding to discuss the railroad situation. Judge R. M. Barton, chairman of the United States Railroad Labor Board, and E. E. Clark, chairman of the I. C. C., were summoned to the capital early last week.

Mr. Jewell is scheduled to confer with the President, Judge Barton and Mr. Clark today. The feasibility of calling the general conference suggested probably will be discussed, reports from Washington indicated.

Salvation Army

Advisory Board Will Be Formed Tomorrow Night

A meeting of those interested in the formation of the Salvation Army Advisory Board will be held at 8 o'clock tomorrow night in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. Samuel W. Pitts will be act as chairman and Mrs. Mary T. Wishman will present the Home Service Plan for the work. Already many citizens have become interested in the proposition and it is expected that there will be a good sized attendance at this meeting.

The Salvation Army, therefore, seeks to accomplish two purposes.

First, it wishes to reduce, if possible, the number of cases which eventually arrive at its door after long wanderings in devious misfortunes.

Second, it wishes to re-establish that home community contact between the sufferer and the people of the old home town through which rehabilitation in most cases is best effected.

A co-operation such as this will serve to lessen the ultimate burden placed upon the shoulders of the Salvation Army workers and keep within bounds the number of persons necessarily consigned to the Army's institutions for prolonged reconstruction periods.

A member of the Salvation Army Research Department, Mrs. Mary T. Wishman, has the attention of the leading citizens here in this matter and hearty appreciation of such a plan for this community is expressed and a desire to support and further it in Alexandria.

Barking Dogs

Cases Against Owners of Canines

Barking dogs occupied considerable part of the time of Justice W. S. Snow in the police court today. The dogs were not brought before the court but their owners were cited.

W. S. Drury appeared as complainant against the owner of three Beagle hounds owned by a person who lives near the Monticello Hotel, Mr. Drury said his guests claimed they were annoyed by the dogs barking at night. The owner explained he had moved and the dogs had been taken away. This solved the case and the owner was acquitted.

Policeman Snellings said he was unable to sleep because of a noisy Collie dog in a house a square away from him. The back yard of the place where the dog is kept however, runs parallel to his back yard, he explained. The lady who owns the dog appeared and through Attorney C. H. Smith presented a petition signed by neighoors setting forth the dog was not a nuisance. The case was dismissed.

THREE MORE BRIEFS FILED IN RATE CASE

Attorneys For People and Road Submit Them

OPPOSE ANY INCREASE

Filed By Maj. E. W. R. Ewing and Frank Lyon For People and by F. L. Ballard, J. S. Barbour for Road

(Special to the Gazette)

Washington, D. C., April 4.—Three briefs were filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission today one by the attorneys for the road and two by attorneys representing the commuters along the road in the case of the Washington Virginia Railway Company which is seeking an increase in rate and abolishment of the twenty-five trip ticket on the road.

New tariffs providing for increased rates and abolishment of the twenty-five trip ticket are now under suspension by the commission

A brief filed by Major E. W. R. Ewing, attorney for the Ballston Citizens' Association, the Clarendon Citizens' Association and commuters of those communities says there is no warrant in the evidence taken at hearing before the commission in allowing the company an increase in the straight fare rate to three cents a mile. The decided weight of the evidence Mr. Ewing says shows that to cancel the twenty-five trip ticket would be a serious injustice and to restrict its use to fewer than five members of a family would be an unwarranted hardship on hundreds of families.

The proposed increase in the twenty five and fifty-two trip tickets is unwarranted by any substantial evidence, the brief says, adding that the present price of the fifty-two trip ticket to Clarendon and Ballston is expensive and unfair.

In closing Maj. Ewing's brief says: "It is respectfully submitted that the facts before the commission warrant a return to the rates in effect before increase of December 1919, unless before a voluntary reorganization of the company and finding of a fare and Fredericksburg, Va., April 4.—Two trainmen were injured, it is feared fatally, and damage amounting to thousands of dollars was entailed, and this city was rocked as if by an earth quake, when a freight car containing 40,000 pounds of black powder blew up here about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Mount Eagle Sold

Washington Investor Secures Property From Mrs. Georgie Morse

Historic Mount Eagle property in Fairfax county, a short distance below Alexandria, has been sold by Mrs Georgie M. Morse to a Washington investor. The sale figured in a transfer of the Interstate Building 1319-1321 F Street, north west, Washington.

As a result of the exchange the seller of the building becomes the owner of the five story apartment at 3121 Mount Pleasant street, containing thirty apartments and valued at $100,000; the business property at 718 Eleventh street north west, valued at $55,000 and the beautiful historical country estate of Mt. Eagle.

"Mount Eagle" was originally the home of Bryan, eighth Lord Fairfax, whose title was confirmed by the British House of Lords. The residence was built in 1739 and the original structure is still in an excellent state of preservation. It originally consisted of eight large rooms, with spacious halls, but from time to time interior alterations and improvements have been made to provide mode modern home conveniences, always preserving the quaint original architecture.

Although Lord Fairfax was an ardent Royalist, the great friendship between him and Gen. Washington continued unbroken until the death of the latter. History tells us that on December 7, 1799, General Washington called and dined with Lord Fairfax at Mount Eagle, this being the very last social call made by Washington. On December 11 following, Lord Fairfax called and dined with Washington at Mt Vernon, and was the last visitor received by him, his death occurring three days later.

Lord Fairfax died at Mount Eagle in 1802, and on his tomb in a nearby cemetery is the following inscription:

"Right Hon. Lord Fairfax,
Baron of Cameron.
Died at Mount Eagle August 7 1802
Aged 78 Years."

In Callahan's "Washington—The Man and the Mason" (a copy of which may be seen in almost any public library) is given a comprehensive review of the relations of George Washington and Lord Fairfax and many interesting incidents that occurred at Mount Eagle

W. G. SIMPSON IS FATALLY SHOT

Bullet From Cat Rifle Enters Right Temple

IN HIS YARD AT TIME

The Deceased Has Been in Failing Health For Long Time—No One Witnessed Shooting.

William G. Simpson, fifty-seven years old, a contracting bricklayer, was shot with a 22 caliber rifle a few minutes before 8 o'clock yesterday morning while in the yard of his residence, 213 Wilkes Street, and died a few minutes afterward at the Alexandria Hospital without regaining consciousness.

At the time of the shooting he was alone in the yard and the firing of the shot attracted his grandson, who supposed that the grandfather had probably shot at a bird, the rifle being in the yard beside the fence.

An examination made by Dr. M. D. Delprey, who was summoned, disclosed that Simpson was shot in the right temple and was beyond recovery. No one witnessed the affair and the members of the family are unable to say anything definite concerning the circumstances of the affair.

Mr. Simpson had been in ill health for several years past, having suffered a stroke of paralysis, one side of his body being effected. He was compelled to relinquish work owing to ill health.

For many years he was one of the leading contracting bricklayers of the city.

Besides his wife Mr. Simpson is survived by six daughters and five sons as follows: Mrs. Fannie Ayers, Mrs. John Hardbower, Miss Rena Simpson, Mrs. Marion Hardbower, Miss Margaret Simpson, Mrs. Effie Bayliss, Messrs. Ernest, William, Normar, Eugene and Clarence Simpson.

His funeral will take place at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from his late residence and services will be conducted by Rev. Dr. D. H. Martin, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church.

Public Address

Dr. James J. Walsh to Give Address On "Aremicanism"

The citizens of Alexandria in general are cordially invited to hear Dr. James J. Walsh at the Lyceum Hall, tomorrow evening, at 8:15. Dr. Walsh is an eminent orator and has addressed thousands of Americans throughout the country, and has chosen as his theme, "Americanism," which subject has proven very successful in the different parts of the United States.

Dr. Walsh last night addressed several thousand people in the Lyric Theater, Baltimore, and the Baltimore Sun stated that his address was a genuine intellectual and civic treat.

Dr. Walsh is lecturing nationally under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus Reconstruction program Committe. There will be no charge, or cards of admission, and neither will there be any collection. Every body is cordially invited to hear Dr. Walsh and special seats will be reserved for ex-service men.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

The first Pioneer hike Saturday afternoon brought out a number who gathered beautiful wild flowers. Charles Robey, of St. Paul's Troop, No. 1, was winner of the prize for the largest collection. He collected twenty different varieties, and his nearest competitor, David Bayliss, delivered eighteen varieties.

Elzie Morris was third with six teen varieties and Howard James, of of the Daniel Boone Troop No. 2, was fourth with ten. The hikers left the Young Peoples' Building about 2 o'clock and returned at 5:30, having covered a little more than four miles. Several short hikes are planned and some over night ones are on the program.

The fourth troop of Pioneers will probably be organized at the Del Ray M. E. Church, South, immediately. Secreatry Wallace, of the Y. M. C. A., visited the Sunday Schools of Del Ray yesterday and a leader was secured. The Baptist school will doubtless also secure a leader very soon and two troops will be the result.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors, of the Y. M. C. A., will be held at the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. Several important committees are to be appointed and the report of the secretary will cover two months activities, as illness prevented his attendance at the last meeting. Some forward steps of real importance are on the program of the association and some of these will be taken up at the meeting tomorrow night.

Forty-three girls appeared for enrollment in the sewing class of the Ladies' Auxiliary at the Chamber of Commerce Saturday afternoon. This was nearly twice the number of the week before and Mrs. Richard Acton, chairman of the educational committee of the Auxiliary, has asked for additional volunteer teachers to assist in caring for the greatly increased numbers.

Mrs. Acton states that the teachers do not necessarily have to be trained, as the instructor assists in the general work. But as only a few girls should be assigned to one instructor, many are needed. Volunteers may telephone either Mrs. Acton or the Y. M. C. A., office—or may report at the Chamber of Commerce for the sewing class Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

There was increased attendance at the children's movies at the Chamber of Commerce Saturday afternoon. The regular attendants were there and a number of new "fans." The pictures are practically all educational films, covering industrial subjects, travelogues, visitures, etc. They are the best obtainable and the children are learning to appreciate them more each week.

The women's gmynasium class will have its first meeting at the Young People's Building this evening at 8 o'clock. Visiting ladies will be welcome at this initial meeting. Besides the organizing of the class, work will actually begin this evening, and all are asked to come prepared to take the first lesson, even though their gymnasium costume is not yet completed.

KARL EXTENDS STAY ON SOIL OF HUNGARY

High Official Tells Correspondents Ex-Ruler's Plans Indefinite

AWAIT PARLIAMENT

Vienna Hears Former Emperor's Departure is Delayed by Illness—to Obey Parliament

Vienna, April 4.—If Karl leaves Hungary it will hardly be within the next few days. I have it from Count Sigray, who is constantly with him, that he is not going away soon. Count Sigray received me yesterday in the palace of Bishop Mikes at Steinamanger in Hungary, where Karl is staying.

I went to the palace and asked to see the former King and was received by Count Sigray, who spoke to me openly about the situation at Steinamanger and made no objection to the use of his name. He is High Commissioner for the Hungarian Government for Western Hungary, the highest official personage, While I talked with him Colonel Lehar, minister of Foreign Affairs, Graiz and other officials of the Hungarian Government passed through the room, all in evident friendly accord. Below, in the garden, in the uniform of an Hungarian field marshal. Karl was walking up and down besides the venerable Bishop Mikes.

Count Sigray said:

"The King is not leaving the country immediately. Regarding his movements in the immediate future he has taken no decision. In any event it would be impossible for him to leave at once. The question is how he would go, and so forth, and other questions have not yet been settled. There are many matters to be settled before he would go. He has also not made a final decision about taking the power in Hungary.

"He returned to Hungary because he felt that he could be useful in restoring its prosperity. He knew that the average Hungarian felt that the country would not have real order until the throne was filled. Now, he is here in the capacity of a private citizen, not having taken over the power. We have yet to see what may come of it. The Parliament and the National Assembly have noted with extreme correctness worthy of the Government, also the National Assembly decided on August 1st of last year, and repeated Friday that the monarchy cannot be restored without the consent of the National Assembly.

"Whatever results from the present situation, this word from the National Assembly, speaking in the name of the people will hold. The King would oe the last to wish to go against the wishes of the people."

I asked Count Sigray:

"How can the King remain here with Hungary's neighbors threatening on all sides?" Count Sigray replied:

"No neighbor has yet made a hostile move and Hungary is making no efforts to repel attacks."

Count Sigray maintained a certain diplomatic reserve during the interview, but I gathered from him and others surrounding Karl that Karl has no intention of leaving Hungary as an immediate result of the present situation. They apparently have reason to believe that if he stays it

Continuity of Foreign Policy.

There was once upon a time a fine old saying in this country to the effect that in affairs with other nations politics should cease at the water's edge. They never have in fact and with the memory of the last campaign in mind when the foreign policies of the Wilson Administration were lambasted hip and thigh by the opposition, who can say that they ever will?

Nevertheless it seems timely that some voice should be raised in behalf of taking the conduct of foreign affairs in this country out of the hands of politicians, taking them out of politics altogether, and turning them over to trained diplomatists and statesmen. Is it necessary that because we generally change administrations every four years that we have got to change our foreign policies, change all our ambassadors and ministers throughout the world and set to work to do over again or undo all that has been accomplished?

We are now in the midst of such an adjustment of our foreign policy as will suit a new administration. Unfortunately the position the Republican Party took in the last campaign sent the question of our foreign policy deeper into the political mire than it had ever been in the history of the nation. But if well founded reports are to be believed, it is destined to sink yet deeper and infinitely deeper.

Viviani has been given assurances by the Harding Administration, we are told that in all the practical details of the peace treaty, affecting such things as reparations and trade rights, France and the Allies may expect the unswerving support of the United States as long as they treat us with fairness and justice. In other words we are to be a party to the Treaty of Versailles in fact but not in name.

There is one great disadvantage to this old Machiavellian diplomacy. There can be no assurance of its continuity at all. With a definite treaty of peace with your signature to it, there is at least something to go by. Without one, and the Republicans do not seem disposed to do the constitutional thing and make one, the nation's foreign policy is left to the whim of each succeeding Administration and the football politics of each succeeding campaign.

Let there be a Treaty of Peace with Germany, let us definitely commit ourselves to something and then if it is have trained experts in diplomacy to do the work. Then we will have policies, not politics, in the conduct of our foreign affairs.

The Harvey Appointment.

The appointment of Colonel George Harvey to the highest and most exacting diplomatic post in the service of the country, that of Ambassador ship to Great Britain, is insulting to millions of Americans and Englishmen, ludicrous to all those who have not lost their sense of humor and dangerous to the peace and harmony of the entire English-speaking world.

So they have been selling stock in the League of Nations down in old New Orleans! Evidently with important reservations.

Our importations of champagne from France increased last year three thousand per cent! But has anyone been bold enough with figures to attempt to fathom what per cent our imitations of whiskey increased?

"Fewer New Taxes," says Boise Penrose. Well, Boise will be Boise, but we suggest a better slogan, "No New Taxes and Fewer Old Ones."

Kills Husband's Slayer After Lapse of 8 Months

Marlow, Okla., April 4.—Mrs. Hobbs Conklin, mother of eight children, is under arrest yesterday for avenging the death of her husband eight months ago, when she shot to death his alleged slayer, Roy Garvin, on the strees of this town.

Garvin had just entered Marlow, alighting from a train when Mrs. Conklin attacked him. She was awaiting him on the station platform and fired one shot which struck Garvin in the head. As he fell, she emptied the gun in his head, two bullets lodging in his brain.

Mrs. Conklin then fled across the street to a store, where she collapsed hysterically. She was then arrested.

Conklin was shot eight months ago by Garvin, authorities charge in an indictment brought against the latter for murder.

Americans in Mexico to Fight Collection of U. S. Income Tax

Mexico City, April 4—Collection of United States income taxes from Americans resident in Mexico will be contested in the United States courts, according to an announcement by a committee representing a group of Americans here.

The announcement stated that sufficient funds already have been raised to start two suits for testing the rights of the United States Government to tax non-resident American citizens, and that these suits will be filed in the Federal District Court at Baltimore. One of the suits will be filed on behalf of Americans whose entire income is derived and expended in Mexico, and the other on behalf of individuals whose income is partly derived from Mexican sources and partly from sources within the United States.

It was made clear that companies and corporations, such as those operating mines and oil wells, are not embraced in the suits, which relate solely to individuals.

Action taken by the committee in Mexico is expected to serve as a precedent for Americans in other countries, the announcement said, and if the suits brought in Baltimore are successful, it is expected that similar actions will be brought by Americans living in most of the Central and South American countries. The Mexican committee is prepared to press its fight to the Supreme Court, if necessary.

The amount of taxes affected in the case of Americans resident in Mexico is understood to be less than $3,000,000.

SPRING REDUCTION IN PRICES ON COAL:

We are today reducing our prices on both Anthracite and Bituminous coal and will be glad to enter orders for Spring delivery.

The mines claim their present prices are as low as their cost of production will permit and that Anthracite coal will be higher by Fall.

The preparation and the quality of the coal we are now receiving is better than it has been for several years.

The freight is still high but there seems very little likelihood of a reduction shortly.

We have been able to reduce our cost of handling and our trade gets the benefit of this saving.

It is not possible for us to know whether this is the best time to buy your winters coal, but we are sure that a reasonable tonnage will have to be mined, transported and delivered through the Spring and Summer months to avoid a coal shortage and high prices next Fall and Winter.

SPORTS

The Cardinal Athletic Club baseball team visited Washington Sunday and was defeated by the Gibraltar nine by a 10 to 3 score.

The Cardinals showed lack of practice, errors being made at critical times that meant runs for the Gibraltars.

When the new players are given their chance in the line up, no doubt they will add great strength to the team work and will aid in winning many games.

Some excellent men are among those who have not yet been used, although they were on the field warming up yesterday ready for action against the enemy, but as the game was more for practice for the Cardinal lads who have been unable to get a work out together this year the strangers were kept out of the contest. It may be proper to add, however, without bragging, that three experienced stars are ready to demonstrate to the local fans that they are real ball players, viz: Hummer, second baseman and captain of the Dickinson College, Pa., baseball team, 1918; Dwyer, right hand twirler, University of of Vermont, 1918, and Carey, of the Boston Latin School, 1919.

The Cardinals are not in the least discouraged by their first defeat, but are determined to win ball games from the best teams who are now booked to meet them. While the Cardinals can not win them all, they will make their rivals go the limit to beat them.

If baseball we had it yesterday on the Shipyard Grounds when the Alexandria Athletic Association opened the Alexandria baseball season by hanging a 5 to 0 defeat on the Rosslyn Steel and Cement Co., in one of the best early season games. Both teams fielded sensational but the early start showed a marked weakness in batting.

Jimmy Quayle the A. A. A. pitching ace showed wonderful form and had the visitors at his mercy. One hit secured off his delivery was a bunt over the third baseman's head, 15 men were turned back by the strike-out route, a screaming three base hit by him in the 6th inning was the only one for extra bases. Peverill fielded sensational for the winners, The playing of the team as a whole was up to mid-season form, Moore, Ellicott, Jones Raison, Nugent, and Theimer showed the real defense that all teams want for a winner. We appreciate the good attendance and welcome all the fans to our games. You can depend on us to give you the best at all times and promise good teams and real sport to all the fans. Next Sunday the Miami A. C. come here to play, this team has won all three of their games this season and will give real opposition. A meeting of the club will be held at the club rooms Wednesday, all members are requested to attend, especially the ball players, a new shower bath will be installed shortly at the club, this will afford good facilities for all club members with the gymnasium equipment we already have. Club rooms 605 King Street.

JOHN BURROUGHS' TOMB HIS NATIVE MOUNTAIN

Roxbury, N. Y., April 4.—John Burroughs was laid to rest yesterday afternoon on the mountainside where he was born exactly 84 years ago yesterday. From the peaks and the valleys of his beloved Catskill Mountains came hundreds of neighbors to pay him the final honors. Others from far off corners of the nation joined them at the grave of the great naturalist.

All morning long and in the early afternoon the slope down the two miles of rocky mountain to Roxbury was dotted with groups of villagers trudging upward to the burial spot.

Back of the grave, which was blasted from solid rock, and rising high to one tip of the mountain which bears his name, was the clump of woods where Mr. Burroughs hounted the fox and observed the birds during his youth and old age. To the right, over a little knoll, the weather blackened house in which he was born could be seen.

Behind the grave a great boulder on which Burroughs played as a boy and often sat in the twilight shadows as a man of the wide outdoors, formed the slab of his resting place. Soon a bronze plaque will be imbedded in the stone to immortalize its significance.

Down the slope a few yards is Woodchuck Lodge, Burroughs' summer home, where he did much of his writing and where he occasionally became host to his close friends, Thomas A. Edison, Henry Ford and Harvey S. Firestone. They stood beside the grave yesterday, and when the ceremony was ended paid a visit to the "lodge."

The burial service was simple. There were a few short prayers, followed by the recitation of poems, after which the casket was lowered into the grave.

STRONG MEN SOMETIMES TIRE EASILY

But Refuse to Believe That They Are Tired Out—Run-Down

Even Athletes Need Tonic

This Husky Chap Admits It, And Twice a Year Takes Pepto-Mangan, Red Blood Builder

He is tall (almost six feet), weighs 185, plays golf, works his own garden, and is stronger than most men. He is the picture of health, looks as vigorous as a football player.

But he is a bit anemic, gets tired too easily, is inclined to constipation, is more nervous than a normal man should be, and is subject to disfiguring pimples.

He told all this himself, and added, "Whenever I have the sense or the memory to take two or three bottles of Gude's Pepto-Mangan in the late fall and early spring, I am as right as a trivet. The trouble is, I forget. If I hired a doctor only to remind me to take Pepto-Mangan twice a year, it would be worth hundreds of dollars to me."

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is an absolutely dependable red-blood builder in all conditions of lowered vitality not due to serious disease of the vital organs. It improves appetite, imparts color to the cheeks, and creates new hope and ambition in those who have become pale, weak, and listless. Physicians recommend Gude's Pepto-Mangan. When you order, be sure the word "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan, Furnished in both liquid and tablet form For sale by all druggists.

EXPLOSION MAY CAUSE DEATH OF TWO

ed, the contents of several being consumed in fire that followed the blast.

Several business establishments suffered plate glass loses ranging from $600 to $1,000 each.

The explosion took place in the freight yards a short distance south of this city.

Telegraph wires were torn from their fastenings on poles, and wire communication to points both north and south was interrupted until repairs could be made.

Debris from the wrecked cars blocked traffic on the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad for several hours. Richmond was notified, and a wrecking crew was hurriedly dispatched to the scene to remove the wreckage and clear the line.

The Fredericksburg fire department soon was on the scene and extinguished fires caused by burning box cars.

Intense excitement was caused in Fredericksburg and throughout the surrounding country. Crowds of the curious hastened to the yards to view the havoc created by the explosion.

Property damage had not been accurately computed at a late hour today. It is certain to run into thousands of dollars, however.

In addition to shattered window panes, plastering was torn from the walls and ceilings in a number of houses, which added to the general confusion.

For a time the fear was expressed that there might be other cars of the explosive in the train, but these fears were allayed by officials of the road.

THREE MORE BRIEFS FILED IN RATE CASE

proper bases of rates it should then appear that a return to the older rates would be unfair."

Frank Lyon, attorney for the central committee of the Falls Church division commuters says that the contention of the operating firm now running the road, that the road is interested in securing more dollars, is a sound one. He says, however, that there is no satisfaction for granting the application for increased rates as the records of the Interstate Commerce Commission show there has been a steady increase of business over the road and that previous conditions in Washington warrant the belief this increase will be maintained.

He says the increase in rate is not warranted because of the increase in maintenance cost "due to the neglect of maintenance in previous years," and that the road is not entitled to a return on the reproduction cost of the property. Ending his argument Mr. Lyons says: "It is respectfully urged that any increase in commutation rates such as represents the bulk revenue of the company, is a definite and serious burden on the annual expenditures of the commuters and is not to be considered in the same light as an increase in passenger fares, charged to a cash passenger.

If the commission finds it advisable to increase single fare rate, it is urged that this be not taken as a necessary or conclusive reason for increasing the commutation rates."

The respondent's brief submitted by Frederick L. Ballard and John S. Barbour says the proposed fares are reasonable and proper "by every circumstance disclosed by the record."

It says a twenty-five per cent advance in the cost of the fifty-two trip ticket should be eliminated.

Maintenance of such ticket depletes the carrier's revenue. The brief says, adding that the road needs full effect of all possible economies and a decree in cost on addition to an increase in revenue from the new rates, if it is it to continue good service.

In closing the brief says the proposed rates are no more than just and reasonable and ask that the suspension order be vacated. The suspension order was made effective till June 13 by the Interstate Commerce Commission. Oral arguments on this case will be made April 13 before the commission and it is expected that a decision will be given a month after they are made a communters, therefore, will know whether or not they will have to pay an increase fare probably early in May.

The First Of Her Own Productions

It's laughing time again! Marguerite Clark has come back. She's been away a year—just a year too long, eh? But here she is again, with all her sparkle, all her freshness, all her joy, all her scintillating vivacity, skipping from laugh to laugh, happy trial to hilarious tribulation, in "Scrambled Wives," the biggest Broadway humor-hit in years.

Marguerite Clark

In the laughing play by Adelaide Matthews and Martha M. Stanley, as produced by Adolph Klauber.

"Scrambled Wives"

Hullo, Friends.

I'm just starting to do the things I've always wanted to in movies. I can do them now because I'm my own boss, making my own productions. And I only hope I'll be able to make you as glad to see me as I am to see you.

Sincerely,

Marguerite Clark.

He said he hated grass-widows and divorcees. But he loved Lucille—and she was all those things, though he didn't know it. Then Hub by No. 1 turned up with Wife No. 2. Wife No. 2 didn't know Wife No. 1—and the scramble started when someone let all the chickens loose at once.

PSEUDO HARDING COUSIN

Chicago, April 4.—While Everett A. Harding, self styled "cousin" of the President and his confidential secretary," spent Sunday in the county jail at Woodstock, Ill., where he is held on charges of impersonating a Government official, Secret Service officials were digging into his activities.

Months before the Republican convention in Chicago young Harding, the agents discovered, was taking an active part in "Cousin Harding's" candidacy representing himself on various occasions as Senator Harding's campaign manager, and even at that early date he was making promises of patronage.

During the Presidential primary campaign in Indiana, Everett first attached himself to "Cousin Warren." Prior to that he had been active in support of both General Wood and Governor Lowden, but when Senator Harding filed as a candidate in the Hoosier State, "Cousin Everett" immediately transferred his allegiance and went to Indianapolis, where he represented himself as the Senator's campaign manager and held conferences and laid plans with leading politicians.

His stay in Indianapolis was brief, however, as word of his activities reached, Harry Daugherty, Senator Harding's national campaign manager, and Mr. Daugherty hastened to the Indiana capital. The nature of his interview with "Cousin Everett" has not been made public, but immediately after this meeting Everett came back to Chicago and subsided until the Harding campaign headquarters were opened here. This time he attached himself to headquarters in an "advisory capacity" as he expressed it to his friends. He made many suggestions and conferred with anyone who would listen to him, much to the annoyance of the real officials, who made several half-hearted attempts to get rid of him. While doubtful of Everett's relationship to "Cousin Warren," they were not sure, and did not care to chance embarrassing their candidate.

New Taxes to Replace Excess Levy

Washington, April 4.—Congress may find it unnecessary to provide any considerable number of new taxes in revising internal revenue legislation, Chairman Penrose, of the Senate Finnace Committee, said yesterday.

"The tax requirements may not be as large as some people now are disposed to think," the Senator said "The question is being studied by our financial experts, and it is entirely possible that the excess profits tax can be repealed without resort to any new extensive taxes to take its place."

The statement was made during discussion of the proposed sales tax as a substitute for the excess profits tax. The sales tax question, Senator Penrose said, will be the first subject before the Senate Finance Committee at hearings on the internal revenue revision to start immediately after Congress convenes.

Senator Penrose said there was "strong propaganda" in favor of the sales tax, but he and other committee members had yet to be convinced that it is practical or desirable.

CROIX DE GUERRE GIVEN ST. MIHIEL

St. Mihiel, France, April 4.—The Croix de Guerre yesterday was conferred on St. Mihiel, which was the scene of a successful three days battle by the American troops, during the war.

The ceremony was attended by prominent French and American citizens, Colonel R. John West represented the American Embassy.

When M. Maginot, the Minister of Pensions, recalled the valor of the Americans who fought side by side with the French at St. Mihiel, he turned to Colonel West. The population, grouped on the ruins of their town, cheered the American officer until Colonel West came forward and bowed his asknowledgments.

The Mayors of all the small towns in the region of St. Mihiel were given the war cross for their respective communities.

D'Annunzio in reply has announced that he will accept the candidate for only one of the new provinces, preferably Zaro.

British Shoot Two Irishmen in Lorry

Dublin, April 4.—Christopher Reynolds, 27, died in a military hospital in Dublin yesterday, and Bernard Noland lies wounded, the result of a sensational affair Friday night.

The two were arrested in their homes at Rathfarnham by "black and tans." The next morning relatives were informed they were shot and were in a hospital. Reynold's sister, admitted to the hospital, found her brother dying. Noland told her after their arrest they were brought toward Dublin Castle.

The "black and tans" had been drinking on the journey and finally made them stand up in the lorry. Shots were then fired at them. Both were struck and fell off the vehicle. Then they were lined up and thrown back on the lorry and delivered at the hospital as dead men who had been shot "attempting to escape." When arrested Reynolds was at the bedside at his dying father, 70. The "black and tans" ordered the old man to get up.

Europe's Working Men Stampede to America

New York, April 4.—Immigration Commissioner H. J. Skeffington, of Boston, who returned today from Europe by the Adriatic, said he found a general desire on the part of working folk on the other side to get to America.

"Once" he said, "they wanted to come only when they were sure that labor conditions here were favorable, but now it is a stampede. In Germany alone 5,000,000 persons are trying to get to the United States. Ports are crowded and the frauds in passports are almost unbelievable."

British Isles Are Placed Under Orders Rationing Coal Supply

London, April 4.—The Board of Trade issued official orders yesterday rationing and reducing coal for the British Isles, illuminated street signs are prohibited, the regulations being identical with those issued during the strike in 1919.

Sunday was given up to meetings of the miners, railway men and telephone workers throughout the country. These meetings were called for the purpose of giving direction for the Triple Alliance conference Wednesday. Judging by the resolutions adopted and the speeches delivered, a strong feeling prevails in favor of a strike of the railway men and transport workers to support the miners.

Old Mr. Dollar is Getting to be Worth 100 Cents Again

Chicago, April 4.—That sturdy old friend, the American dollar, is coming back and displacing the miserable 52 cent imitation that has been posing as a dollar for the last three or four years. Here are some evidences that Mr. Dollar is functioning again.

The dollar today will buy ten pounds of sugar. The dollar of 1920 bought only three and three-fourths pounds.

The dollar now buys twenty pounds of rice as against six pounds in 1920.

The dollar now buys sixty pounds of potatoes as against eleven and one half in 1920; sixteen and two-thirds pounds of navy beans as against eleven and three-quarters a year ago; four dozen eggs, as against one dozen a year ago; three pounds of butter, as against one pound a year ago an dtwo and one-half pounds of coffee as against one and one quarter pounds of the same brand a year ago.

The old dollar will also buy three times as much clothing, and better clothing, twice as many shoes, a third more coal and nearly twice as much flour, lard, fruit and some varieties of meats. It will, in some instances, buy five or six times as many vegetables.

That dependable old friend, the nickel, is also staging a comeback. During the war the nickel was rare to hear of. It would buy nothing, not even a Sunday paper or the cheapest sort of cigar; but now many articles that formerly sold for a nickel are back at the old stand and doing a thriving business.

RICHMOND THEATER

Delightful entertainment is in prospect for patrons of the Richmond Theatre today and tomorrow, when "Scrambled Wives," starring dainty little Marguerite Clark in her first independent production, will be the attraction. This production also marks Miss Clark's return to the screen after an absence of a year following her marriage, and many admirers in this city who have missed the petite and winsome star will have an opportunity to see her in the sort of part that has endeared her to the hearts of motion picture fans in all corners of the globe. "Scrambled Wives" was a hit last season on the stage, playing to long engagements in both Chicago and New York, and, according to all indications, the screen version is going to be equally successful.

The complications which result from Mary's efforts to hide a "terrible past" make this one of the most amusing and delightful photoplays of a decade.

INGOMAR THEATRE

Neal Hart's latest picture in his great outdoor series is said to be the best he has ever made.

It is a story of the great Northwest, replete with thrills and excitement. The story dates back to the days of the Chippewa Indians and their mythical belief in the spirit of the aurora borealis, which led them from darkness to light, from hunger to plenty.

The picture is entitled "Skyfire," and is unique for the reason that it shows what very few persons have even seen—the glo of the Northern Lights in the sky. This was accomplished by means of special electrical equipment.

The picture, "Skyfire," will be seen at the Ingomar Theatre tonight.

Bootleggers Threaten To Finish Man They Shot

Buffalo, N. Y., April 4.—Members of the gang of bootleggers who shot and painfully wounded Wm. Welch amateur "deputy sheriff," son of Dr. C. E. Welch, millionaire grape juice manufacturer of Westfield, near here, have written the wounded man threatening to return to Westfield and kill him, together with other prohibitionists in the village.

The threat is contained in the following letter, written in pencil and on a sheet of ordinary note paper, posmarked New York.

"We are sorry we did not get you the first time. We will be back within a few days to finish the job. We intend to finish you and all other prohibitionists around there who do not know enough to keep out of other people's business. We as sorry we missed our mark and will be back within a few days to get you.

(Signed) "One of the Gang."

Welch announced today that he has no intention of leaving the fight against bootleggers in Chautauqua county as a result of the shooting and threat. His wounds are fast healing.
